Who we are?

We are more than a publisher

AP Comunicação's mission is to transmit knowledge to professionals in the automotive aftermarket, either through the publications it publishes (Jornal das Oficinas, Revista dos Pneus and TOP 100 Magazines) or through the various types of initiatives and events it carries out: Gala TOP 100, Best Mechatronics , Challenge Workshops and Aftermarket Summit.

Publications, events and annual campaigns are produced with the aim of satisfying the needs of readers, as well as companies in the market, in terms of information on new products, services, technologies and good practices.

Our mission

Our mission is to drive and bring value to communication

We assume the responsibility of working more and better, and we will never stop innovating in all areas guided by our main objective, which will always be the transmission of useful and current information to aftermarket professionals in Portugal. This is how we got here with you, and this is how we will stay with you. This is our commitment!

“We work with passion and dedication to the aftermarket”

Why invest in our products?

Because we are unique!

Because we were the first specialized publisher and we have been leading communication in the Aftermarket sector in Portugal for 16 years.

Because we guarantee the reader the right to be informed with truth, accuracy and exemption on all topics related to the Aftermarket.

Because we take care of the image of our and your products.

Because our print, digital and events reach 95% of professionals in the sector.

Because we promote the best practices in the sector.

Because we have a specialized team that knows the market and can advise you on the best strategy for your communication.

VIII Gala TOP100 – Event

Target Audience

Manufacturers, Distributors and Retailers of light and heavy parts, Refinishing, Lubricants, Tires and Equipment, Distribution Groups, Independent Workshops, Dealers and Workshop Networks) for light and heavy mechanics, collision, tires, Glass experts.

The biggest Aftermarket event in Portugal

The VIII GALA TOP 100, organized by Jornal das Oficinas, is a unique and exclusive event in the after-market scene in Portugal. The objective of this initiative is to reward the best distributors and Workshops in the TOP 100 Magazine ranking, according to evaluation criteria prepared by the company IF4. Every year we award the companies that stand out in the national aftermarket, either for their competence or for the commitment of the professionals who work in them. All deserve our admiration and respect for the positive contribution they make to the development of the after-market in our country.

It's to celebrate its success that we organize the VIII GALA TOP 100, considered by many the biggest social event in the aftermarket sector in Portugal.
